

SOCIETY

THE HINDS' DANCE

Last Tuesday evening Miss Mona and Miss Margaret Hind gave a dancing party honoring their house-guests, Miss Ann Poucher of New York and Miss Doris Hall of Connecticut. Mrs. Robert Hind, Mrs. Eben Low and Mrs. Robert Hind received the guests and made them welcome. The Country Club, where the dance was held, was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A huge basket was suspended from the ceiling center and out of it as if falling were hundreds of the pastel-shaded asters and asparagus fern. Tulle in every hue of the pastel shades was most artistically arranged. The corners were banked with long stalks of panax and pampas grass and fish-tail fern. In the dining-room dozens of yellow lilies and white coreopsis were arranged. The lights were all covered with tulle in pastel colors and a dreamy, misty light was the result. Hanging baskets were all about the place in graceful profusion.

The following were the Hinds' guests: Miss Doris Hall, Miss Ann Poucher, Miss Lois Brundred, Miss Edna McDuffie, Miss Adeline Smith, Miss Rose Brown, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Armine von Tempky, Miss Aileen Dowsett, Miss Emily Cooke, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Miss Ruth Gartley, Miss Bessie Damon, Miss Catherine Elton, Miss Laura Low, Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Lonita Arnold, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Mae Walker, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Edith Gibb, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Carol Reid, Miss Nancy Wallace, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Thelma K. Murphy, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Gwen von Tempky, Miss Margaret Thurston, Miss Ethel Paris, Miss Eileen Keady, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney.

Men: George Fuller, Leighton Hind, Francis Brown, Fred Schaefer, Carl Schaefer, Bob Purvis, Bob McEary, Gordon Gibb, Platte Cooke, Fred Carter, Stanley Mott-Smith, Ernest Mott-Smith, George Bromley, Stanley Kennedy, Alan Lowrey, Fred Wichman, Bob Stevens, Allen Burdick, Sonny Macfarlane, Charlie Lyman, Vernon Tenney, Bob McCortison, Ernest Parker, Jack Galt, William Paris, Lorin Thurston, Ernest Gay.

DR. AND MRS. A. N. SINCLAIR'S DANCING PARTY

On Wednesday evening the Country Club was the setting for a very pleasant and beautiful dancing party given by Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Sinclair. The dance was held in the Country Club and the friends assembled at the Sinclair home and enjoyed a "punch party."

This pleasant affair was given in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. E. J. Carr of Schofield Barracks. The Sinclair home was very pretty with decorations in pink and white asters.

Those invited by Dr. and Mrs. Sinclair to meet Lieut. and Mrs. Carr were Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. Popp, Lieut. and Mrs. George Ruhlman, Jr., Capt. and Mrs. Charles S. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bishop, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Hooper, Miss Hazel Martin, Miss McManis, Miss Mabel Lightfoot, Miss Louise Lightfoot, Miss Marian Lightfoot, Miss Daphne Dow, Miss Mabel Armstrong, Miss Wallace, Lieut. Joseph C. Haw, Mr. Parsons, Mr. George Haddock, Lieut. F. S. Stewart, Lieut. Norman Frankenburg, Lieut. Cliff Andrew, Mr. Frost, Mr. Scherlich and Mrs. Father Ignatius Fealy.

A COUNTRY CLUB DINNER

Around a table decorated in purple and gold several fraternity men entertained last night at the Country Club. Purple asters and golden lilies were used on the table, while at each guest's place was a corsage bouquet of golden poppies and purple tulle. Dancing was the diversion of the guests for the evening. Those at the table were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Pillsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Eames, Miss Georgia Purcell and Mr. Charles Dana Wright.

COL. Z. S. SPALDING HONORED

Last Saturday was the birthday of Col. Z. S. Spalding of Kauai, and his two sons, Mr. James and Mr. Rufus Spalding, gave a dinner at Helme's in his honor. The table was very lovely with its decoration of red lilies, asparagus fern, red and green tulle and red-ebaded candles. The guests were Col. Spalding, the guest of honor; Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Mrs. Senni, Mrs. Catherine Bodrero, Mr. Walter Dillingham, Mr. Arthur Rice and Mr. Ford of Los Angeles.

DR. AND MRS. ARTHUR HODGINS' DINNER

This evening Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Hodgins are entertaining complimentary Mrs. Fred Damon and Mr. William Williamson, who leave for the coast next Wednesday. Red is to be the color scheme of this dinner. Red flowers in a bronze gold basket will grace the table center, while red-shaded candles and tulle will make an artistic finish. The name cards are to be suggestive of a trip to the coast. Dr. and Mrs. Hodgins' guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Damon, Mr. and wishes to announce that during her absence until October 1 her dancing partner, Mr. Charles Ransford, will conduct all classes and private lessons in I. O. O. F. Hall. Office hours, Young Hotel, 9 to 10 a. m.

Madame Lester

Mrs. John A. Balch, who has gone for a four months' tour of the mainland.

Mrs. Samuel Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grey, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer and Mr. William Williamson.

LIEUT. AND MRS. ROY L. C. STOVER'S DINNER

Last Wednesday Lieut. and Mrs. Roy L. C. Stover entertained a company of guests at a very informal but delightful dinner party and dance at Helme's Tavern. Transvaal daisies in the pastel shades made a most attractive centerpiece. Lieut. and Mrs. Stover's guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Pillsbury, Dr. and Mrs. Cade, Mrs. Frederick Foucar, Dr. Harrison, Lieut. Donaldson and Lieut. Martinson.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR MACKINTOSH'S INFORMAL TEA

On Wednesday of this week Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mackintosh gave a small tea honoring Mrs. Francis Gay and her house-guests, Madame Mariska Aldrich, Mrs. Edith Simonds and Mrs. Jennie Agan. About 25 guests enjoyed an afternoon by the seashore at the Mackintosh beach home.

MR. AND MRS. VINCENT GENOVES' CHOWDER PARTY

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Genoves entertained a company of guests with a chowder supper at the Outrigger Club. The guests were hidden for five to enjoy a swim which they did. When the supper hour arrived all did full justice to a well prepared meal. Mr. and Mrs. Genoves' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Nottage, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKenzie, Miss Brown, Miss Thelma K. Murphy, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Margaret Steven, Mr. William Morgan, Mr. Harry Steiner and Mr. Dave Larsen.

MRS. WILBUR ROGERS A LUNCHEON HOSTESS

On Monday of this week the University Club was the scene of a very pretty luncheon given by Mrs. Wilbur Rogers (Louise Churchill) of Schofield Barracks in honor of Miss Carol Reid of Hilo, who left on Wednesday's steamer to enter a select school in Roanoke, Virginia. A basket filled with vari-colored sweet peas and lacy fern made the table most attractive. The name cards were hand-painted sweet peas. Covers were laid for Miss Carol Reid, Miss Thelma K. Murphy, Miss Laura Low, Miss Bernice Halstead, Miss Helen Pratt, Miss Ruth Gartley, Miss Helen Center, Miss Eleanor Gartley and the hostess. Social conversation passed the hour after luncheon.

MADAME MARISKA ALDRICH'S SECOND CONCERT

Next Wednesday evening Madame Mariska Aldrich will give a second song recital. Those fortunate enough to hear her in her first concert are looking forward to hearing her again. Mr. Ernest Gay is going to sing one number on the program and this is being looked forward to with a deal of interest for it is a composition of Vernon Tenney's.

Next Thursday Mrs. Gay and Madame Aldrich go to the volcano and while in Hilo Madame Aldrich will give a concert.

On the Tuesday following Mrs. Francis Gay and her party of guests leave for the mainland. Mrs. Bernice Steven will accompany Madame Aldrich at Wednesday's recital.

BRIG-GEN. AND MRS. ROBERT K. EVANS' DINNER PARTY

Last evening Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans gave a very large and delightful dinner-dance at the Country Club. The table was especially attractive with its gracefully arranged basket of hermercallis lilies, yellow-shaded candles and tulle. Dancing was the pleasure of the guests for the rest of the evening.

Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Evans' guests were Col. Herbert S. Foster, Miss Foster, Col. John E. MacMahon, Miss MacMahon, Col. and Mrs. Richard C. Croxton, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Samuel L. Johnson, N. G. H. Capt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Jas. Gallogly, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph F. Janda, Lieut. Virgil V. Enyart, Mrs. Clinton, Lieut. Lyman and Miss Hodges.

MR. AND MRS. JAY GOULD'S INFORMAL DINNER

Last Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould entertained very informally at the Rathskeller for Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, Mrs. Senni, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. James Spalding, Mr. Rufus Spalding, Mr. George Fairchild and Mr. R. Ford of Los Angeles.

A DAY IN NUUANU

Mrs. Harry Wilder entertained a company of friends on Tuesday with an all-day swimming party and lunch. The guests enjoyed a swim in the pool and then a delicious lunch was served, after which sewing was the occupation. Mrs. Wilder's guests were Miss Julia Hechner, Miss Fildine Butler, Mrs. Ayer, Mrs. G. Beall and others.

THE COUNTRY CLUB DANCE

About 150 guests enjoyed the dance given last evening by the directors of the Country Club. The dance was given two weeks earlier than is usual so the polo week visitors might enjoy it.

SINGS TO THE QUEEN

Thursday morning Madame Mariska Aldrich sang for Queen Liliuokalani. Madame Aldrich's beautiful voice pleased her majesty very greatly indeed. A pleasant hour was enjoyed by the guests.

MRS. JACK HAYES A LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Thursday Mrs. Jack Hayes entertained at one of the prettiest luncheons given this week. As decorations a rock crystal loving cup was filled with yellow daisies, six smaller rock crystal bases held single flowers, the tulle used was a brilliant emerald green, the candlesticks of rock crystal were shaded in yellow silk. It was an extremely lovely luncheon and the color scheme was carried out to the smallest detail. The place cards were also in yellow and green, as was every course served at the luncheon. Mrs. Hayes is a very charming woman with an altogether delightful manner and personal charm.

The guests were Mrs. James H. McRae, Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, Mrs. James Gallogly, Mrs. Henry Holcombe, Mrs. Harold F. Loomis, Mrs. Daniel H. Gentry, Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Benton Hind, Mrs. Witseil and Mrs. George S. Perkins.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR WALL'S SUPPER AT THE BEACH

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wall invited a few friends to come and have a swim and then supper under the great spreading hau trees that flank the front of their lovely Diamond Head home. A silver centerpiece was filled with Transvaal daisies in the pastel shades. The Walls have a reputation for their kindly hospitality and the welcome they give their friends. Those enjoying this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walker, Mr. George Denison, Miss Belle Weight, Mr. George Ahlborn and Mr. William Lewers.

MRS. A. N. CAMPBELL'S LUNCHEON

Around a table made very dainty with a low basket filled with Transvaal daisies in the pastel shades Mrs. A. N. Campbell entertained at luncheon on Thursday. The name cards were arranged to fit each guest in some special way, and part of the scheme was in guessing. It caused a deal of mirth. Mrs. Campbell's guests were Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mrs. George Beckley, Mrs. James D. Dougherty, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Rosalier of San Francisco and Miss Grace Cadwell.

MRS. OLAF SORENSON'S LUNCHEON

Monday of this week Mrs. Olaf Sorenson entertained at the Country Club. Covers were laid for 16 guests.

"THE AUCTIONEERS' MEET"

A club of bridge players who have called themselves "The Auctioneers," and who meet once a month, held this week's bridge party at Mrs. James Bicknell's home. The same gift is awarded at each bridge—a service plate—and in the end each member will be the winner of a dozen service plates. The members of this club are Mrs. M. T. Simonton, Mrs. A. G. Ferguson, Mrs. John Gribble, Mrs. James Bicknell, Mrs. G. L. Sampson, Mrs. F.

J. Turner, Mrs. J. Lande, Mrs. W. A. Welborn, Mrs. Henry Chiptere, Mrs. E. A. Jacobson, Mrs. Metters, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Mrs. A. G. Horn, Miss Dewar, Mrs. Dabnell and Mrs. Ambrose Wirts.

A MOVIE AFTERNOON FOR THE CHILDREN

A meeting was held on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Ferdia and Hedemann to launch an undertaking that will be an education as well as a pleasure to the children of Honolulu. Every child in this city is interested in the movies and it goes without saying that many of the screen pictures are not for children's eyes; hence this meeting. A committee of three ladies, Mrs. E. D. Kilbourne, Mrs. Tom Church and Mrs. F. Lindeman interviewed the management of the Liberty theater and Manager Pedrick was more than willing to have a children's afternoon. Objections will no doubt arise to the heat of an afternoon performance, yet the winter months coming will insure a comfortably cool place. The Pathe Weekly films will always be shown, then some of Burton Holmes travelogue pictures, animated cartoons and some simple picture of worth. The mothers of the city are deeply interested, among them such women as Mrs. Robert Lowers, Mrs. F. R. Day, Mrs. Clarence Cooke, Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Mrs. George Rodick, Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mrs. E. D. Kilbourne, Mrs. R. Lange, Mrs. Tom Church, Mrs. F. Lindeman, Mrs. Arthur Alexander and Miss Mary Winne.

CONCERT-DANCE ON ROOF GARDEN THIS EVENING

The management of the Alexander Young Hotel directs attention to a concert to be given by the Russian musicians on the roof garden of the Young Hotel this evening, beginning at 9 o'clock. Dancing alternating with concert numbers.—Adv.

Little Ann Foucar, five-year-old daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Foucar. She is one of the cleverest child swimmers in the islands. She is particularly good at diving, already attempting 30-foot heights.

Samples of any material gladly sent free of charge

Free delivery to any part of the territory

Handsome Materials For Skirts

The Dress Goods department is overflowing with timely materials for Fall dressmaking. In Skirtings, the suggestions are very rich, indeed.

In White:

Lovely Gabardines in plain weaves, novelty stripe materials, that is, self-striped, herringbones, basket weaves, etc. All these fabrics are one yard wide and are priced variously at 25c, 35c, 50c to 75c a yd.

Colored Stripes:

Stripes are to be as popular for the coming season as they have been, so these materials are quite to be considered. The stripes appear in many kinds of fabrics in widths up to 2½ inches. Crash and linens. Per yard, 35c, 40c and 50c.

Silver Bloom---

Silver Bloom is a new tub fabric that is similar to alpaca and looks like pongee. The colors are absolutely fast, and the cloth may be boiled with no risk at all. Yard wide, at the yard, 60c.

SACHS'

Hotel near Fort

Honolulu

KENNETH ALEXANDER, PHOTOGRAPHER

Kenneth Alexander
Portraits
I am taking orders now for portraits to be used as holiday remembrances. Moderately priced cabinet sizes and mezzographs.
Sittings by appointment
Phone 4682
424 Beretania St.